Project Title: Sex Positivity in 90's Rap: Salt-N-Pepa

I'd like to build this site as multiple pages, rather than a long single page website. I am currently in the Merle Kling Research Fellowship for the Humanities, and my thesis is centered around Sex Positivity in Black female rap, of the 1990s. I wanted to use this page to specifically focus on one of the groups I reference in my research, named Salt-N-Pepa, a black femme rap duo rising to fame in the early 90's.

- Home Page/ Intro
 - Introduce the main topic, set the tone to understand how Salt-N-Pepa was sex positive in their music and aesthetic, and the need for femme sex positivity in hip hop/rap.
- History of Salt-N-Pepa/ Formation
 - How the group came to be/ rose to fame
- Sex Positivity in Salt-N-Pepa's music
 - Reference specific Albums/songs
- Legacy
 - Highlighting the legacy of the duo in today's music
- Sources - all the sources and references I used
